TEUTONS DRIVE OVER DNIESTER

Continued from Page One an abundonment of the Galleta offensive in favor of a gigantic drive on the French capital. In the streets, in the shops, everywhere that people gathered to talk of the victory over the Russians, was voiced the belief that the Gallein army hosts should be hurried from their scenes of triumph in the East and hurled against the French and British lines in northern France.

Obviously no hint has come from the War Office regarding what is to fellow the fall of Lembers. But well-informed milltary men here today doubted that Mackenson's armies would be seen in action along the Franco-Flanders line in the near future. The general belief is that Germany will send reinforcements into the Russian Rallic provinces and renew the drives upon Riga and Warsaw. The Kalaer is said to be determined to deal the Czar's said to be determined to deal the carrier armies a blow from which they cannot well recover, before starting a fresh of-fensive against the French.

In official circles it was declared today that the importance of the Austro-German victories in Galleia cannot be over-sationard. It was posted out that since estimated. It was pointed out that since estimated. It was pointed out that shoe Mackensen began his forward movement on May I he has retaken more territory than is included in the New England States of America. He has virtually cleared Galicia of enemy troops and has recovered a territory rich in copper, since the state of the st and oil. Minors already are en route to Gallela to reopen the abundoned shafts where copper deposits as rich as those of Michigan and Montana lie buried.

CZAR AT FRONT: RUSSIA

ADMITS LEMBERG REVERSES

A Russian official communication re-ceived here confirms the statement of the Austrians and Germans that the esistance of vast German forces, re-laimed almost entirely a great province they believed in September was irretrievably lost. The reoccupation of the cap-ital is certain to have far reaching moral effect in the central empires, yet the Russian army has been defeated only, not destroyed. And military writers say that in this war it will be the Sedans, not the Waterloos, that will win.

General von Boehm-Ermolli when he entered the capital found the Russians had evacuated it in good order. They had taken with them their stores, their guns, their Government archives-for they had established a permanent gov-ernment in the city and renamed It

Austrian correspondents pay a tribute to Grand Duke Nicholas for the masterly manner in which he directed the retirement of his forces. As at Przemysl, everything of military value had preceded the army toward the frontier. During the last two days of the struggle rear guards only held the Germanic silies in check. In the meantime the main army was falling back behind the Bug River, where it is expected to make its next stand before it retreats finally across the order, less than 30 miles away.

Whether the fall of Lemberg means that the Russian army operating south of it in southpast Galicia is effectively cut off from the army to the north, stretching across Poland to the Baltic, cannot yet be said. The newspapers of both Vienna and Berlin say this is the cae, and that the Russian arms have re-ceived a blow from which they cannot

GERMANS BOMBARD ARRAS IN ATTEMPT TO HALT FRENCH

Nuns Killed When Teuton Shells Hit Hospital.

In an attempt to halt the French of-fensive about Arras, the Germans have opened a heavy bombardment of that town. Among the victims of the bombardment, according to the official com-munique issued here this afternoon, were some nuns who were killed when shells fell on St Sacrament Hospital, In no previous war have there been such unparalleled devotion to the cause of humanity as that shown by the nurses The Sisters who were killed by the Ger-man shells directed at Arras are only a few of the number who have perished but at every opportunity they are at the front or as near it as the military authorities will permit.

The text of the communique follows: "In the region to the north of Arras the night was comparatively calm, except to the north of Souchez, where the cannonade showed no cessation.

"The enemy bombarded Arras. The ambulance of St. Sacrament was hit.

Shells tumbled several buildings in ruins. The French gunners replied and the artillery duel lasted for several hours. All along the battle front, from Arras to a point north of Souches, the most violent cannonading has been going on since early yesterday.

The official communique this afternoon reported an unserversely

DR. RICHMOND'S TRIAL POSTPONED UNTIL FALL

Ecclesiastical Court Adjourned Because of Illness Among Triers—Hailed as Victory.

The ecclesiastical trial of the Rev. George Chalmers Richmond, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, for alleged disobedience of the Bishop, violation of his ordination vows and conduct unbecoming a clergyman, was postponed until is their hoped-for place in the sunfurther notice today, by Chancellor Henry They also believe that a huge war in further notice today, by Chancellor Henry Budd, because of illness among the triers. The trial probably will be held in the fall, about the same time the civil cases will be heard, to determine whether or not the Rev. Mr. Richmond will remain in the pulpit of St. John's.

Announcement of the postponement was greeted as a victory by followers of Doctor Richmond. When the trial was opened shortly after 2 o'clock at the Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany, Chancellor Budd announced that the trial board, as selected from a panel of five by Bishop Rhinelander, was composed of the Rev. George C. Carter, of Bryn Mawr; the Rev. S. M. Holden, of St. Paul's Church, Bristol, and den, of St. Paul's Church, Bristol, and the Rev. J. Kennedy Moorhouse, of Con-shohocken. He then excused Mr. Moor-house from service because of illness, and appointed in his stead the Rev. Al en R. Van Meter, of Torresdale. Complications followed when Mr. Carter asked to be ex-cused because of deafness. The request was granted and the Rev. C. Rowland Hill, rector of St. Mathias', the last mem-ber of the panel of five clergymen, was named to fill the vacant place.

Mr. Hill further complicated the situation by asking to be excused. He, too, pleaded illness and consequent inability to endure the strain of the trial, which promised to extend over a long period.

Edgar N. Black, attorney for Mr. Richmond, and Church Advocate Louis Bar-croft Runk and Walter C. Dougles, Jr., wrangled over the advisability of excus-ing Mr. Hill. Chancellor Budd seemed on the point of excusing him and calling on the standing committee for a new panel of triers, when Mr. Moorhouse offered to withdraw his excuse. To this Mr. Black objected, urging that the trial be post-poned until fall.

Chancellor Budd suggested that the trial be postponed until it could be determined when Mr. Moorhouse and Mr. Hill are physically able to serve, which was agreed on by both factions. The two clergymen are to notify the Chancellor personally August 20 if they are physically able to act as triers. If neither of them is well enough, a new panel will be chosen by the standing mmittee, subject to the approval of the Bishop.

Doctor Richmond faced his accusers confidently and smiled reassuringly at the small gathering in the trial room.
"I have been ready for this for six months," he said. "I will not leave St. John's Church until the courts order

The financial report shows a surplus for the year of $851,834.74. Last year's surplus was approximately $847,000, but the apparent decrease this year is accounted for by the fact that the company cashed in one year in advance an issue of three-year notes of $1,300,000, due in 1918.

Mr. Grove's letter set forth that business has been rather dull with the I. T. Morris Company, a subsidiary of Creace. Morris Company, a subsidiary of Gramp's, which manufactures hydraulic machinery. He expressed the opinion that this has been due to the hesitation of capital to develop the water power of the country, and possibly to restrictive legislation restricting the fredom of action heretofore permitted.

Two other subsidiaries of the Cramp Company, according to the officials, are doing well and the future looks promising. They are the Kensington shipyard

WOMAN'S LABOR LAW RULINGS

State Industrial Board Modifies It Temporarily Regarding Work Hours.

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 24.-The State industrial Board today issued a number of temporary orders, expiring September 30, modifying the law relating to hours of work for women in certain spe-cific instances. In doing so the Board let it be known that it will make permanent rulings covering groups, to avoid confusion and necessity of passing on many individual cases.

Independent telephone representatives, sended by Senator J. H. Thompson, of Seaver Falls, asked for modifications of the law as it affects exchanges where but one operator is employed or where the exchanges are in families. A further conference on this subject will be held this afternoon.
